

COMPETENCE-BASED STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT
STRATEGISCHES KOMPETENZ-MANAGEMENT (SKM)
7th Symposium on Strategic Learning
28-30 September 2011
Johannes Kepler University Linz / Austria

SKM-Symposia provide a platform for intensive discussion and exchange of research ideas, and work in the field of Strategic Competence-based Strategic Management. Since 1999 the conference has been held every two years. The Institute of Human Resource and Change Management at the Johannes Kepler University in Linz/Austria will host the 7th SKM-Symposium in September 2011.

Firms must constantly rise to the challenge of learning strategically, if they are to gain and sustain competitive advantage. Based on the premises of the resource-based view (RBV), organizations have to preserve their existing capabilities, but they also have to constantly advance their competence base in order to meet demands of a dynamically evolving environment. Thus, firms have to create learning contexts, learn from others and they have to know when to prevent learning where exact replication is necessary. Therefore, they have to resolve tensions between the antagonistic development modes of exploration and exploitation (ambidexterity) to evolve and to adapt to changing environments and transfer successful business models in new contexts. Organizational design, human resource management systems and change management set the course for learning, in accordance with strategic aims. Hence, research on strategic learning links learning, knowledge creation, transfer, and replication with strategic objectives with the aim to generate and sustain competitive advantages on a competence-based perspective.

Therefore, the symposium aims to address questions primarily, but not exclusively, on the following topics:

- Strategic learning: how to link learning, knowledge creation, transfer, and replication on individual, group, and organizational level with strategic objectives
- Organizational ambidexterity: how to balance competing learning modes of exploration and exploitation
- Dynamic capabilities: the firm's ability to match or even create (market) change

Submissions are appreciated in English as well as in German. Furthermore, we welcome empirical and theoretical papers on the wider field of competence-based strategic management.

About Linz

Located on both sides of the river Danube, Linz, with its 190,000 inhabitants is the third-largest city of Austria and capital of the federal province of Upper Austria. The metropolitan area Linz-Wels-Steyr has a population of 460,000 and is the second-largest economic region in Austria. As the European capital of culture 2009 (www.linz09.at), Linz comes up with a mix of its baroque city centre, industrial flair and a vibrant music and arts scene. The "Brucknerhaus" and the "Ars Electronica Festival" are well-known far beyond the borders of Upper Austria.

Embedded in a high-class transport network (railway, motorway A1, blue danube airport linz), Linz provides excellent links to other major cities. The historic centre of Vienna (90 min. by train) and Salzburg (66 min. by train), both are on the UNESCO world heritage list, as well as Munich/Germany (157 min. by train). The "Salzkammergut", of which parts are also on the UNESCO world heritage list, can also be reached easily (i.e. Gmunden, 55 min. by train).
